The State Of Louisiana,
Parish of Vermilion, 15th
Judicial District of Louisiana

Vs.

Delinquent Tax Debtors

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution and the laws of the State of Louisiana, I will sell, at the Vermilion Parish courthouse annex, conference room, within the legal hours for judicial sales beginning at 10 o'clock a.m. on Wednesday, the 13th day of June, 2018, and continuing on each succeeding legal day, until said sales are completed, tax sale title to all immovable property on which taxes are now due to the parish of Vermilion, to enforce collection of taxes assessed in the year 2018, together with interest thereon at the rate of (1%) per month until paid and all costs. The names of said delinquent tax debtors (who were unsuccessfully notified of delinquency by U.S. mail and therefore deemed to be unknown), the amount of statutory impositions due, including any due for prior years, and the immovable property assessed to each to be offered for sale are as follows:

On the day of sale I will sell a tax sale title to such portions of the property as each debtor will point out and, in case the debtor will not point out sufficient property, I will at once and without further delay sell the least quantity as undivided interests of said property of any tax debtor which any bidder will buy for the amount of statutory impositions for which the sale is made, together with all interest and costs due by said tax debtor. The sale will be without appraisalment, for cash or other payment method acceptable to the tax collector, in legal tender money of the United States, and the tax sale title to property sold will be redeemable at any time during the applicable redemptive period by paying the price given, including costs and five percent (5%) penalty thereon, with interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month until redeemed.
